

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

NATIVES ARE MADE VITAMIN CONNOISSEURS—Now Guinea natives are food connoisseurs, anxious to know the best foods to eat for health. Margaret McArthur, girl winner of an Australian scientific expedition, reports that natives include yams, fruits, yams.

MOVE INDIAN VILLAGE FROM BRANTFORD FOR SPORTSMEN'S SHOW—A whole Indian camp moved from the Six Nations reserve at Brantford, Ont., to the Canadian National Sportsmen's show in Toronto. Little Beaver, (centre), is a lacrosse stick expert and his companions are Lookout and Wild Horse—Head of the village is Chief Gray Bay, (right). The group brought totem, skinning blocks, cooking pot and other equipment right into the show.

NURSE KEEFE'S VITAL—Dangers of a 168-degree temperature. Theresa Arsenau, 21-year-old First Cross nurse, stayed at the bedside of a mother in childbirth on Marcus island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence until the doctor arrived on "every fifteen" plane. Her was delivered safely and then doctor cared for Mrs. Arsenau, near collapse after 24-hour vigil.

NO WONDER these two black cats are intrigued with yards and yards of sausage. This picture was taken as Mrs. Harry Norton and daughter Mary were bringing home the pork sausage made from the trimmings of one hog.

BARBARA ANN SHARES THE LIMELIGHT—An interview, when Barbara Ann Scott met press in Montreal, was Martin McDonald, 12, looking a job on community center paper. The grinning, young newspaperman managed to gain almost as much attention as Barbara Ann as he confidently questioned her regarding her future. Happiness above everything is the ambition of the smiling 14-year-old. Others, Barbara Ann's home town, recorded her a civic welcome when Prime Minister King was on hand to greet her.

HUNT JOCKEY—Canadian-born Jockey Albert Butler, shown here, now a Montreal resident, is missing eight two companions in a small boat off the Florida coast. The party set out to fish and are believed to have been caught in a gale. More than 30 searching planes have failed to find trace of the boat.

BOYS DIE IN FLAMING HOME WHILE MOTHER TELEPHONES GROCER—Two small boys, Johnny Hayes, two, and his baby brother, Tommy, perished in this burning cottage at Westboro Beach, near Ottawa, while their mother, Mrs. George Hayes, was telephoning a grocery order at a neighbor's house. A third son, David, three, escaped and a spaniel was rescued. Neighbors are shown here battling the fire.

HER MAJESTY INSPECTS A PUP—At the ideal home exhibition at Olympia, London, the Queen stops to inspect a small puppy. Beside the ribbon-battered queen is Princess Margaret Rose, while the Majesty the King is almost obscured by his wife and daughter.

GRAND DRAGON ADDRESSES P.R.A. MEETING—Dr. Samuel H. Green, (left), is shown clad in brilliant green cloak as he addresses a group of more than 2,000 persons, including 800 hooded members of the Ku Klux Klan, during demonstration in Whiteville, Georgia. The Grand Dragon declared: "We southern people realize southern danger has arisen even from our own president, who would take our constitutional rights so that he could guarantee social equality between you and other people—black, yellow or red."

CHILD GIVES ALARM—Timely discovery of a blaze by nine-year-old Carol Brannigan, Toronto, Ont., gave the occupants of a three-story house time to flee the burning structure. Carol's father, Robin Brannigan, raced upstairs through blazing smoke and rescued Mrs. Nellie Baggart, a cripple, from her second-story room. Carol is shown here with her mother.

QUIT AS CZECH ENVOY—The dramatic resignation as Czech ambassador to Canada leaves Dr. Frantisek Neme, seen with his wife and daughter, Eva, 17, and their two sons, Ladan and Kim, a man without a job doesn't intend to apply for Canadian citizenship.

MAY BECOME WORLD FAMOUS—The above four normal purchased Holstein butter calves and their mother, May Pontiac, Big Apple Pig, are in a fair way of becoming world famous, as they are believed to be the first living quadruplet calves of the same sex in Canada or the United States. Aunt Schanck, the owner, R.R. 2, Silverton, Ont., and his 18-year-old son, Carl, admire the famous mother and daughters.

FREIGHT CAR LANDS BESIDE BRANTFORD HOME—A C.N.R. freight car, loaded with 30,000 pounds of steel, jumped the tracks on the main line, plunged over a slight embankment and landed on its side, its top open, about four feet from the frame home of Clarence Titus at Brantford, Ont. Titus was away working. His family didn't even wake up with the crash. Mrs. Titus said she realized something had disturbed her slumber. The heaviest was less than a dozen feet from her bedroom. Fifteen feet of fence in front of the house was ripped out.

JEWISH HADASSAH HOSPITAL ATTACKED BY ARABS—This is the Jewish Hadassah hospital in Jerusalem, Palestine, which was attacked by a large party of Arabs, smashing off a bell in which two Arabs were killed and 34 Arabs and Jews were wounded. The battle was marked by a series of heavy explosions, which resulted from the use of mortar bombs by the opposing forces.

PASSENGER TRAIN CRASHES INTO STANDING FREIGHT—Bud Hayes, trainman, (left), was thrown through glass door, suffered slight shock when Toronto-Toronto freight hit a standing freight near Thessalon, Ont. Passengers were shaken up. Four box cars were reduced to splintered wood by impact. Engines of crash train hit broken switch and shored into freight. Some of coaches was damaged.

